- (D) The Court will review Court appointment lists periodically to ensure the equitable distribution of appointments.
- (E) Guardian Ad Litem.

Sup. R. 8 Court Appointments.

- (A) As used in this rule:
 - (1) "Appointment" means the selection by a court of any person or entity designated pursuant to constitutional or statutory authority, rule of court, or the inherent authority of the court to represent, act on behalf or in the interests of another, or perform any services in a court proceeding.
 - (2) "Appointee" means any person, other than a court employee, receiving a court appointment who is selected by the court. "Appointee" does not include a person or entity who is selected by someone other than the court.
- (B) Each court or division of a court shall adopt a local rule of court governing appointments made by the court or division. The local rule shall include all of the following:

- (1) A procedure for selecting appointees from a list maintained by the court or division of persons qualified to serve in the capacity designated by the court or division. The procedure shall ensure an equitable distribution of appointments among all persons on the appointment list. The court may consider the skill and expertise of the appointee in the designated area of the appointment and the management by the appointee of his or her current caseload. The court or division may maintain separate lists for different types of appointments.
 - (2) A procedure by which all appointments made by the court or division are reviewed periodically to ensure the equitable distribution of appointments among persons on each list maintained by the court or division.
 - (3) The manner of compensation and rate at which persons appointed will be compensated for services provided as a result of the appointment, including, if applicable, a fee schedule.
- (C) The local rule required by division (B) of this rule may include qualifications established by the court or division for inclusion on the appointment list, the process by which persons are added to or removed from the appointment list, and other provisions considered appropriate by the court or division.
- (D) If a party or other person is required to pay all or a portion of the fees payable to an appointee, the appointee promptly shall notify that party or person of the appointment and the applicable fee schedule. The court or division shall require the appointee to file with the court or division and serve upon any party or other person required to pay all or a portion of the fees itemized fee and expense statements on a regular basis as determined by the court or division. If the party or other person required to pay all or a portion of the fees claims that the fees are excessive or unreasonable, the burden of proving the reasonableness of the fees is on the appointee.

Sup. R. 9. Court Security Plans.(A) Court Security Plan

If more than one (1) court occupies a court facility, the courts shall collectively develop and implement a single court security plan. In addition to any other provisions necessary to satisfy the purposes of this rule, the plan shall address the provisions of the Ohio Court Security Standards adopted by the Supreme Court and as set forth in Appendix C to this rule.

(B) Public Access

For purposes of ensuring security in court facilities, a court security plan, including any security policy and procedures manual, emergency preparedness manual, and continuity of operations manual adopted as part of the court security plan, shall not be available for public access.

- (D) An interested party will not be allowed to use the contents of a recorded hearing in subsequent pleadings filed with the Court or in argument before the Court unless a transcript of the entire hearing is filed with the Court.
- (E) Upon filing an Objection to a Magistrate's Decision or a Notice of Appeal, an objector or appellant who is required or desires to file a transcript of a hearing must contact a court reporting service to have the transcript prepared. The person requesting the transcript shall direct the court reporting service to contact this Court to obtain a copy of the digital record of hearing. The objector or appellant must file the completed transcript in this Court within the time limits of the Local Rules of Court, Rules of Civil Procedure, or the Rules of Appellate Procedure. When the transcript is filed by an appellant, this Court will certify the transcript to the Court of Appeals.

The miscellaneous docket shall be limited to actions within the Probate Division's jurisdiction that are not kept in one of the other dockets described in division (C)(1) of this rule. - (b) All dockets of the Probate Division shall contain the dates of filing or occurrence and a brief description of any bond and surety, letter of authority, and each filing, order, or record of proceeding related to the case or action, with a reference to the file or record where the bond and surety, letter of authority, filing, order, or record of proceeding is to be found, and such other information as the court considers necessary.

- (A) Upon motion of any party showing good cause and upon notice to all other parties and the individual who is the subject of the reports, the Court may order any hospital by any agent competent to act in its behalf, to reproduce all or any portion of designated hospital records, not privileged, which constitute or contain evidence pertinent to an action pending in this Court. The Order shall direct the hospital to describe by cover letter the portion or portions of the records reproduced and any omissions and specify the usual and reasonable charges. The Order shall designate the person(s) to whom such reproductions shall be delivered or made available.
- (B) Objections to the admissibility of such reproduced hospital records on the grounds of materiality or competency shall be deemed reserved for ruling at the time of trial without specific reservation in the Order to reproduce. LOCAL RULE 45.1 OMISSION OF PERSONAL IDENTIFIERS PRIOR TO FILING

“Personal identifiers” means social security numbers, except the last four (4) digits; financial account numbers, except the last four (4) digits including but not limited to debit card, and credit card numbers; employer and employee identification numbers; and dates of birth.

When personal identifiers are omitted from a case document filed with this Court, the filer shall submit or file that information on a separate form. The filer shall use the Probate Court Confidential Disclosure of Personal Identifiers form to provide the Court with this information. The form is available in the Rules Appendix.

Comment: The filer is responsible for removing personal identifiers.

Sup. R. 45.(D) Omission of personal identifiers prior to submission or filing

- (1) When submitting a case document to a court or filing a case document with a clerk of court, a party to a judicial action or proceeding shall omit personal identifiers from the document.
- (2) When personal identifiers are omitted from a case document submitted to a court or filed with a clerk of court pursuant to division (D)(1) of this rule, the party shall submit or file that information on a separate form. The court or clerk may provide a standard form for parties to use. Redacted or omitted personal identifiers shall be provided to the court or clerk upon request or a party to the judicial action or proceeding upon motion.
- (3) The responsibility for omitting personal identifiers from a case document submitted to a court or filed with a clerk of court pursuant to division (D)(1) of this rule shall rest solely with the party. The court or clerk is not required to review the case document to confirm that the party has omitted personal identifiers, and shall not refuse to accept or file the document on that basis.

(E) Restricting public access to a case document

(1) Any party to a judicial action or proceeding or other person who is the subject of information in a case document may, by written motion to the court, request that the court restrict public access to the information or, if necessary, the entire document. Additionally, the court may restrict public access to the information in the case document or, if necessary, the entire document upon its own order. The court shall give notice of the motion or order to all parties in the case. The court may schedule a hearing on the motion.

(2) A court shall restrict public access to information in a case document or, if necessary, the entire document, if it finds by clear and convincing evidence that the presumption of allowing public access is outweighed by a higher interest after considering each of the following:

- (a) Whether public policy is served by restricting public access;
- (b) Whether any state, federal, or common law exempts the document or information from public access;
- (c) Whether factors that support restriction of public access exist, including risk of injury to persons, individual privacy rights and interests, proprietary business information, public safety, and fairness of the adjudicatory process.

(3) When restricting public access to a case document or information in a case document pursuant to this division, the court shall use the least restrictive means available, including but not limited to the following:

- (a) Redacting the information rather than limiting public access to the entire document;
- (b) Restricting remote access to either the document or the information while maintaining its direct access;
- (c) Restricting public access to either the document or the information for a specific period of time;
- (d) Using a generic title or description for the document or the information in a case management system or register of actions;
- (e) Using initials or other identifier for the parties' proper names.

(4) If a court orders the redaction of information in a case document pursuant to this division, a redacted version of the document shall be filed in the case file along with a copy of the court's order. If a court orders that the entire case document be restricted from public access, a copy of the court's order shall be filed in the case file. A journal entry shall reflect the court's order. Case documents ordered restricted from public access or information in documents ordered redacted shall not be available for public access and shall be maintained separately in the case file.

(F) Obtaining access to a case document that has been granted restricted public access

(1) Any person, by written motion to the court, may request access to a case document or information in a case document that has been granted restricted public access pursuant to division (E) of this rule. The court shall give notice of the motion to all parties in the case and, where possible, to the non-party person who requested that public access be restricted. The court may schedule a hearing on the motion.

(2) A court may permit public access to a case document or information in a case document if it finds by clear and convincing evidence that the presumption of allowing public access is no longer outweighed by a higher interest. When making this determination, the court shall consider whether the original reason for the restriction of public access to the case document or information in the case document pursuant to division (E) of this rule no longer exists or is no longer applicable and whether any new circumstances, as set forth in that division, have arisen which would require the restriction of public access.

Forms for use in Summit County Probate Court are available on the Court's website. Attorneys are encouraged to use these forms.

Sup.R. 51. Probate Divisions of the Courts of Common Pleas -Standard Probate Forms.

(A) Applicability. This rule prescribes the format, content, and use of standard forms for designated applications, pleadings, waivers, notices, entries, and other filings in certain proceedings in the probate division of the courts of common pleas.

Where a standard form has not been prescribed by this rule, the form used shall be that required by the Civil Rules, or prescribed or permitted by the probate division of the court of common pleas in which it is being filed.

(B) Effective date; use of standard and nonstandard forms.

(1) This rule takes effect July 1, 1977 and applies to proceedings had on and after that date, including proceedings in pending cases.

(2) The standard forms shall be used on and after January 1, 1978, and nonstandard forms shall be rejected for filing.

(C) Modification of standard forms; pleadings and filings prepared for particular cases.

(1) A printed, blank standard form may be modified by deletion or interlineation to meet the circumstances of a particular case or proceeding, if the modification can be accomplished neatly and conveniently. No court shall require the modification of a standard form as a routine matter. If any allegation, statement, data, information, pleading, or filing is required by an appropriate local rule of court and a standard form does not make provision therefor, it shall be provided in a separate or supplemental filing.

(2) Even though a standard form is prescribed, an original instrument may be prepared for filing. Any such instrument shall be typed on eight and one-half by eleven inch paper. The caption prescribed in Sup. R. 52 shall be used, and the instrument shall follow the format prescribed for the standard forms. Any such instrument may modify the language of the standard form, omit inapplicable matter required by the standard form, and add matter not included in the standard form to the extent required by the circumstances of the particular case or proceeding.

(D) Standard probate forms. The standard forms prescribed for use in the probate division of the courts of common pleas are as follows.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is identical to former C.P. Sup. R. 16.

This rule was amended effective December 13, 1989, to add a temporary provision suspending the use of Standard Probate Forms 15.0 through 17.5, the guardianship forms. This was necessitated by the revisions to the guardianship laws embodied in Substitute Senate Bill 46 of the 118th General Assembly, effective January 1, 1990. New guardianship forms were adopted effective September 1, 1991 and the temporary provision was repealed. In addition, additional estate forms were adopted as the result of Amended Substitute House Bill 346 of the 118th General Assembly, effective May 31, 1990. See R.C. 2113.03 and 2113.533.

The December 1989 amendment to this rule also added new Standard Probate Forms 18.0 through 19.1, which are used for adoptions.

When standard forms are generated by computer, they shall conform to all specifications for standard forms stated in Sup. R. 52. The Court will accept for filing nonstandard computer generated forms for the receipts and disbursements attached to a standard account form or the schedule of assets attached to a standard inventory and appraisal form.

The signature line for the attorney shall be retained.

(d) In Standard Decedents' Estates Form 4.2, the portion of the form below the date line and principal's signature line, and above the repeat at the foot of the page, may be replaced by the imprinted name and address of a corporate surety, identified in some appropriate manner as the surety on the particular bond, and including a signature line for the attorney in fact. The last paragraph of the body of the form, relating to justification of personal sureties, shall be omitted.

(e) When standard forms are generated by computer, they shall conform to all specifications for standard forms stated in this rule. A court may accept for filing nonstandard computer generated forms for the receipts and disbursements attached to a standard account form or the schedule of assets attached to a standard inventory and appraisal form.

If no local court rule exists, the compensation shall be subject to court approval.

(B) If, by reason of the special and unusual character of the property to be appraised, the fiduciary is of the opinion that the appraisal requires the services of persons qualified in the evaluation of that property, a qualified appraiser may be appointed and allowed compensation as provided in division (A) of this rule.

Commentary (October 1, 1997)

This rule is analogous to former C.P. Sup. R. 28. The title to Sup. R. 61 has been amended to be more inclusive and applies to appraisers in all probate matters. The term "appointment" in the title has been deleted since the rule no longer deals with this issue.

Former law required three disinterested appraisers. Former C.P. Sup. R. 28(A) was intended to clarify the transition from three appraisers to one appraiser. The rule is no longer needed and has been deleted.

Former divisions (B), (C), (D), and (F) attempted to set guidelines for appraiser fees when the court did not set forth a local rule. Division (A) now permits the compensation to be set by agreement of the fiduciary and appraiser unless set by local rule. All disputes shall be settled by the probate court. Former C.P. Sup. R. 28(A), (B), (C), (D), and (F) are unnecessary since the appraiser's compensation is adequately addressed by R.C. 2115.06.

Former C.P. Sup. R. 28(E) has been redesignated as Sup. R. 61(B) without substantive changes.

LOCAL RULE 61.2 INVENTORY

The Schedule of Assets shall contain the legal description and the parcel number of all real estate included in the Inventory of the Estate and V.I.N. for all motor vehicles.

Sup. R. 61 Appraisers.

- (A) Without special application to the court, a fiduciary may allow to the appraiser as compensation for services a reasonable amount agreed upon between the fiduciary and the appraiser, provided the compensation does not exceed the amount allowed by local court rule. If no local court rule exists, the compensation shall be subject to court approval.
- (B) If, by reason of the special and unusual character of the property to be appraised, the fiduciary is of the opinion that the appraisal requires the services of persons qualified in the evaluation of that property, a qualified appraiser may be appointed and allowed compensation as provided in division (A) of this rule.

(C) Guardian Comments and Complaints.

(1) A Complaint filed regarding a Guardian must be written and signed by the complainant. The Complaint will be docketed. There is a $15.00 filing fee for complaints. At the discretion of the judge or magistrate, the fee may be refunded at the conclusion of the complaint process.

COMMENT:

The Court adopts the following process for submitting comments or complaints regarding the performance of guardians appointed by the Court pursuant to Sup. R. 66.03(B). This rule applies to all guardians of adults.

Anonymous complaints will be discarded.

- (D) Relationship of Guardian to Ward

The judgment entry appointing a guardian shall indicate if the provisions of Sup.R. 66.01- 66.09 apply to the guardian and if the guardian is related to the ward by consanguinity or affinity.

The entry shall also indicate if the guardian is being paid to provide services to the ward. If so, the court shall make a determination as to whether or not the services are in the best interests of the ward and state in its entry the decision to allow or disallow the payments.

COMMENT:

Sup.R. 66.03(D) and 66.09(G) prohibit the appointment of a guardian who is a service provider unless otherwise authorized. This rule permits the court to allow a dual role when it is found to be in the best interests of the ward.

- (E) Attorney/Guardians

If an attorney serves as both a guardian and attorney for a guardianship, the Court must approve the dual roles and any fee bill submitted for court approval must contain separate itemization of time spent as guardian and attorney.

COMMENT:

Sup.R. 66 currently prohibits an attorney from serving as both fiduciary and attorney perceiving an inherent conflict of interest. However, the Court, on a case-by-case basis, may approve the dual role. In order to avoid questions as to overlap or conflict, the Court will not approve guardian's fees or attorney's fees unless both are itemized.

- (F) Guardians Having Ten or More Wards

A roster of guardians for adults having ten (10) or more wards will be maintained by this Court. That roster will be updated on or after January 1st of each year. Each guardian on the roster shall file their fee schedule annually by the 15th day of April which differentiates fees for guardianship work and legal work.

COMMENT:

The standard fee schedule should include the title and hourly billing rate for each individual expected to provide billable services to the guardianship.

(G) Exemptions From The Educational Requirement

The court shall consider an exemption from the educational requirements imposed by Sup.R. 66.1 et seq. on a case-by-case basis. However, if the Court finds that the training offered to the guardian OR the performance of the guardian meets or exceeds the expectations of the Court, the guardian may be exempt. In addition, these categories of guardians shall be exempt:

1. Volunteer/Paid guardians who participate in the required training through Jewish Family Services.
2. Guardians through APSI.
3. Guardians who have held that position for more than five years and have had no citations in the last five years.
4. Guardians related by blood or affinity whom the Court indicates should be exempt.

(H) All Motions to resign as guardian shall be filed with a Personal Information Form No. GA 17.

Nothing in this rule prohibits the Court from mandating education for any guardian at any time if the Court finds that the education is necessary and in the best interest of the ward.

[Local Rule 66.1 amended effective May 9, 2017, February 1, 2019.]

Sup. R. 66 Guardianships.

(A) All applications for the appointment of a guardian on the grounds of mental incompetency shall be accompanied by either a statement of a physician or clinical psychologist or a statement that the prospective ward has refused to submit to an examination.

(B) An Application for Authority to Expend Funds (Standard Probate Form 15.7) shall not be approved until an Inventory (Standard Probate Form 15.5) has been filed.

(C) An application for allowance of care and support of a minor shall allege, if such is the fact, that the parents are financially unable to provide the items for which the amount is sought.

Comment:

Fees are for services which require the expertise of an attorney. For example, preparation of any court documents which a non-attorney would pay an attorney to do.

The Court is going to scrutinize the time itemization to ensure that work performed is in the capacity as legal counsel. More information is better.

- (A) In all matters where an attorney is the fiduciary of the estate, guardianship, or trust, and that attorney or another is the attorney of record, detailed records shall be maintained. Prof. Cond. Rule 1.5 shall govern the reasonableness of all fees.. The Court assumes an attorney, appointed as fiduciary, has been selected due to the attorney's special knowledge and abilities resulting in a savings of fees to the estate, guardianship, or trust.

The Court shall consider an application for counsel fees for a fiduciary upon filing of an inventory and shall consider additional fees annually upon the filing of each account, unless good cause is shown otherwise.

- (B) All fee applications for non-legal services shall be accompanied by itemized records stating date, time expended, service performed, and hourly rate requested (or the basic fee). Fee applications for non-legal services performed by the attorney shall be accompanied by separate itemized time records stating the date, time expended, and services performed. These shall be billed at 20% of the attorney's hourly rate.

Upon review of the records, the Court may set the fees for hearing, regardless of the submission of consent(s) to fees.

Comment

- (1) If the executor or administrator is also the attorney for the decedent's estate or if the attorney for the estate is a member of the fiduciary's law firm, the attorney may not charge attorney fees for services that are customarily performed by the fiduciary when the attorney plans to charge the full statutory fiduciary fee as well as an attorney fee.
- (2) In all matters where the attorney is also the guardian or trustee, the attorney may not charge attorney fees for services that are customarily performed by the guardian or trustee when the attorney plans to charge the guardian's fee or trustee's fee as permitted by these local rules as well as an attorney fee.

[Local Rule 71.2 amended effective June 29, 2018.]
